137091 Caxixi Rattle Pair ..... $17.95

A caxixi is a percussion instrument consisting of a woven closed basket with a flat-bottom filled with small particles (seeds or rocks). The round bottom is traditionally cut from a dried gourd or coconut. The caxixi creates sounds from vibrations, like the maraca, it is sounded by shaking. Variations in sound are produced by varying the angle at which the caxixi is shaken, determining whether the contents strike the reed basket (softer sound) or the hard bottom (louder, sharper sound). Size: 7.5 x 4.5cmH

Wooden Hand Tambourine

Xylophone

137093 8 Bar ..... $31.95

Each bar of a Xylophone is an idiophone tuned to a pitch of a musical scale. Each is tested to ensure the enjoyment of the sound created when played and find it to be melodic. This is a fabulous cue sound for fairies and imaginative play. Size: 15 x 18 x 3cmH

Hand Carved Bongo Drum

137094 20cm ..... $29.95

Drum up some play time fun with one of these animal skin drums. Perfect for a Drum Circle. Sit in a circle with drums of various sizes and a few percussion instruments. A lead drummer sets the beat and others join in and follow. A band leader then uses hand signals to either indicate to beat softly or louder or stop all together and start off with a new beat. Excellent resource for group activities, effective learning and social emotional skills.

Wooden Tongue Drum

137095 31.5cm ..... $49.95

A tongue or slit drum is a hollow percussion instrument. In spite of the name, it is not a true drum but an idiophone, usually carved or constructed from bamboo or wood into a box with one or more slits in the top. Most slit drums have one slit, though two and three slits (cut into the shape of an "H") occur. If the resultant tongues are different width or thicknesses, the drum will produce two different pitches. It is used throughout Africa, Asia and Oceania. In Africa such drums, strategically situated for optimal acoustic transmission (e.g., along a river or valley), have been used for long-distance communication.

Since 1998, Trommus has contributed to the setting of new standards for drums used in the teaching of rhythmic. The drums have been developed by a teacher of rhythmic, focussing on sound, quality, and functionality. Based upon his own experience he set out to develop a drum that would meet the needs of the users, students as well as teachers. The result was a very sturdy drum that is easy to use by big and small, in a design that is easily recognized. The drums are inspiring and easy to work with, and are designed for storage within each other. They are handmade in Denmark using natural skin, and contain no harmful substances.

A play scarf has a multitude of uses only limited by a child's imagination. Children love scarf play! Using scarves can teach important concepts, enhance motor skills, help children to express creative movements, and it's fun too! Very popular in dress up activities, scarves can be used for capes, skirts or veils and play scenes can be enhanced with the addition of a scarf.
