To achieve maximum longevity from your outdoor wooden products, regular maintenance is required. Please inspect regularly, if looking weathered or grey, it's overdue for oiling. For best results oil at least every 6 months (depending on use and local atmospheric conditions) using either natural linseed oil or a plain food grade vegetable oil. Product Note: Merbau wood is used on all Aussie Play timber products. Merbau is very durable that will last outdoors for many years. No chemicals or harmful materials are used to coat the timber. Food grade vegetable oil is used, as such, Merbau can 'leach' tannins that may stain. Tannins will generally leach when the timber is allowed to get wet. What can you do? Avoid getting the timber wet by packing away equipment in rainy weather. If this is not possible, avoid leaving the product on a surface that may stain (eg. Concrete). If it does get wet, wipe down the product with a disposable rag to remove any excess tannin. Note: the leaching will stop after a period of time. This varies dependant on the timber. It is not considered a fault in the timber, it is a feature of using a natural timber product. Timbers that contains high amounts of tannin are generally more durable timbers.

The KindyGarden is implemented as part of the educational curriculum. The documentation templates allow educators to document children's voices and learning, as well as showing links to the EYLF.

Quality area 2 - Children's health and safety:

Children are introduced and encouraged to participate in healthy eating and hygiene practices.

Quality area 3 - Physical Environment:

The KindyGarden helps embed sustainable practices in the Early Childhood service. The KindyGarden also supports children to take responsibility for the environment. Furthermore, the KindyGarden is perfect to help services meet Education and Care Services Regulation regarding children having access to natural materials and resources.

Quality area 5 - Relationships with children:

The KindyGarden encourages all children to be involved, if they choose. As a group project, this encourages children to collaborate, communicate, share ideas and be respectful. The KindyGarden also offers opportunities for educators to build reciprocal relationships with the children throughout the project.
